From the Chief Engineer.

Editor Bloomfield Record:

The alarm from box 36 Sunday morning last was occasioned by telephone message from Glen Ridge to Mr. Budd, asking him to send the Department.

My object in addressing you is to ask citizens when they have need of the Department to send the alarm from the fire-alarm box nearest to the fire. In this case it would have been box 35, corner Ridgewood and Bloomfield Avenues. Telephoning does not facilitate the answering of alarms, but always delays the Department in reaching their destination and causes a great deal of confusion, and might result in disaster to those needing help. Signs placed over each box show where keys can be found, and I trust hereafter the instructions may be followed.

Yours, etc.,

T. HOWELL JOHNSON, Chief Engineer.

Montclair and Caldwell.

The Presbyterian Churches of Montclair held a union missionary meeting in the Trinity Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night. A very interesting address was made by Rev. C. A. R. Janvier a missionary from India.

The Township Committee at its meeting on Monday evening passed a resolution not to grant the Epley application for a street railway charter.

The Young People's Society of the First Presbyterian Church, Caldwell, elected the following officers Tuesday night: President, Edward L. Jones; Vice President, Miss Eva Jacobus; Secretary, Mrs. T. W. Biggs.

The annual commencement of the High School was held Thursday night. The Alumni Association met last night.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank Francisco celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary and held a reception.

Dr. C. W. Butler, editor and proprietor of the Montclair Herald, left for Europe in the steamer City of Chester, which sailed last Wednesday. He will return September 1st, in time for the fall campaign.

The death is announced at Elkhorn, Va., of Joseph Baldwin, an old resident of Montclair. Mr. Baldwin on the first of the month went to the South to spend the summer with his daughter, Mrs. William J. Harris. His death was due to general debility.

Mr. Baldwin was born and lived for many years in Montclair and lived in the old Baldwin homestead at the corner of Orange road and Elm street. He was eighty years of age. He was an uncle of ex-Surgeon Joseph L. Mann, of East Orange. Three daughters survive him, the Misses Lydia D., and Mary P. Baldwin and Mrs. W. J. Harris. His wife died a few months ago.

"BLOOMFIELD EXCITED BY A COAL SYNDICATE."

"Efforts to Control the Retail Trade of Bloomfield and Montclair—Wealthy Men Interested."

These are days of startling headlines, as the reader will discover by the headlines to this article, which were taken from one of the leading papers of Newark last Thursday. Americans are prone to live in a constant state of excitement, yet we think it unusual for that which will excite the people. The article referred to was simply ridiculous. No one moving about the streets of Bloomfield and Montclair during the last week saw anything that would have even the appearance of agitation upon the coal question. No knots of men have been noticed on the street corners engaged in even ordinary conversation.

There is too much sensationalism in the papers of the present time, and much of it is because the report is lacking their facts over some "stunt" based upon a fact or lie about a tale of woe, the number of which it will make in the paper being the motive power which sets their brains and pencils in motion.

The Country reporter for the City press is becoming a terror, not to evil doers, but to the suburban community that so often misrepresents.

Men Wanted!

The great want of this age is men! Men who are not for sale. Men who are sound from centre to circumference, true to the heart's core. Men who fear the Lord and hate covetousness. Men whose consciences are as steady as the needle to the pole. Men who will stand by the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels. Men who can tell the truth and look the world and the devil right in the eye. Men who neither brag nor run. Men who neither swagger nor flinch. Men who have courage without whistling for it. Men who have the current of everlasting life runs still and deep and strong. Men careful of God's honor and careless of men's applause. Men too large for sectarian limits and too strong for sectarian hands. Men who will not fail or be discouraged till judgment be set in the earth. Men who know their message and tell it. Men who know their place and fill it. Men who know their duty and do it. Men who mind their own business. Men who will not lie. Men who are not too lazy to work or too proud to be poor. Men who are willing to eat what they have paid for. Men who know whom they have believed. Men whose feet are on the everlasting rock. Men who are strong with the divine strength, wise with the wisdom which cometh from above, and loving with the love of Christ—men of God!—Glorious Methodist.

Republican Executive Committee of Bloomfield.

There was a meeting at the Young Men's Republican Club rooms on Tuesday night of the Republican Executive Committee of Bloomfield. Upon this Committee will largely devolve the work of the coming campaign. To them will be due in a great measure the credit for what success the party may achieve. There was a full representation present, which augurs well for the party. Plans were made and a general outline of the work required was gone over.

Wm. Biggart, is chairman; Geo. W. Cook, vice chairman; Fred M. Davis, secretary, and Spencer B. Hall, treasurer.

The committee from the First Ward is Thos. McGowan, J. A. Lawrence, Geo. W. Cook, Wm. L. Johnson, S. H. Hall, C. L. Potter, N. H. Dodd. Second Ward: Wm. Colfax, Frank Gahn, Jr., Harry Cooper, W. M. Brokaw, Wm. E. Eastman, W. Walker, F. M. Davis and Wm. Krenrich. Third Ward, Thos. F. Cadmus, Geo. Peterson, Fred R. Pich, C. W. Powers, Frank Foster, Arthur J. Lockwood, Wm. Biggart and Samuel G. Hayter.

Mr. Biggart's position on the County Committee, in accordance with the new constitution and by laws, made him chairman of the Executive Committee. While it is a new position for him to fill, with his known energy and desire for the success of the Republican party, the Executive Committee it may be depended upon, will not have an opportunity to go to sleep.

Political Notes.

The New York Sun gives this good advice: In betting on the Presidential election, don't put up more money than you will be able to spare next November, and don't be too sure that you won't lose all you bet. Nobody can tell for sure how things will go in this election, and the man who doesn't bet on it is safer than the man who does.

The Young Men's Republican Club last Saturday night hosted on the flag pole on Dodd's Hall, a Harrison and Ried steamer which will float to the breeze until after the election in November.

One of our prominent Democrats who went to Chicago says that Stevenson has a better war record than Harrison. The Newark News says that "Stevenson, like Clarkson, fought with an ax." He was first assistant Postmaster General and from that gets the title of "General."

The Republicans of this Township go in to the campaign to win. They know they are right and are all united. No division of sentiment but one desire to charge upon the common enemy and rout them.

The Crisp Democratic Battery is officered as follows: Captain, Thos. O'Rourke; First Lieut. Wm. Chatterton; Second Lieut. John Dugan; President, Peter Glennon; Vice President, John Larking; Secretary, Chas. Wiener; Treasurer, Chas. Batzle.

The advisory committee of the Essex County Democrats held a meeting at the Jefferson Club, Newark, Thursday night. Bloomfield was represented by Edwin A. Rayner and M. J. O'Brien.

Queen Isabella's Progress.

Mrs. Martha J. Lamb, in a delightful paper on "Columbus and His Time," read before the graduating class of Gardner school, expressed some facts concerning Queen Isabella from which the women of today may draw a lesson of modesty. It is to be feared the progressive woman of today looks upon her Mother Eve, but Isabella's "progress" was phenomenal considering her environment. "She had never studied Latin till after she became a queen," says Mrs. Lamb, "but seeing its necessity in diplomatic intercourse she applied herself bravely to its acquisition. Presently it became the fashion to study the ancient tongues. Italian teachers were imported into Spain, and there was great enthusiasm, but not a few Spanish women contributing to the brilliancy of this comparatively unenlightened period."

"It is interesting to look backward 400 years and find learned women as well as men attending academic examinations, taking part in the public exercises of the gymnasium, and lecturing from the chairs of universities, but we shall not be likely to find it in any country except Spain, and to the influence and example of Isabella the credit must be given."

An Interesting Package.

A small package was left, three weeks ago, at the door of a conspicuously elegant house in Fifth Avenue. Being delivered by a well dressed man, the highly respectable butler did not hesitate to receive it, although, as he noticed afterward, it was addressed impersonally: "To the most beautiful woman in New York."

In view of the peculiar antipathy lately manifested toward some of the wealthy residents of the town, the beautiful mistress of the house and her charming daughter, dare not open the parcel, which has the accidental air of being a jeweler's package, but which may be dynamite. So it lies with seal unbroken, an object of curious conjecture to the family and their guests.—New York Recorder.
